Firstly where a student wishes to withdraw from a subject of study or a course, a 'Notification of Withdrawal' form must be completed and submitted to the Unity College office linked to your study. The date of withdrawal is the date in which written notification is received by the Unity College office.

The refund policy takes into account the commitment the college has to make to trainers in deciding if courses/subjects have sufficient numbers of students enrolled to proceed.

Refunds of monies paid in the following manner:

International students:

- Once initial payment has been made and a study visa granted the first semester's course fees are non-refundable.
- Ongoing payments are treated as follows.

Other full-time students:

- Prior to the cut-off enrolment date for each semester (2 weeks prior to the first Monday of semester) - full refund less 10% of relevant semester subject fees.
- After the cut-off date - no refund is payable.
- Outstanding monies still owing within the current semester will remain payable.

Students can start a subject/course a maximum of two weeks after the commencement date. There is no refund for late commencements.

The Principal of the local campus of Unity College will make the final decision about refunds. Refunds will normally be made in Australian dollars even if the initial payment was made in another currency. The student is responsible for any currency conversion costs.

Notwithstanding the above full refunds of all relevant fees will be paid where the college defaults in its delivery (eg where a course doesn't run). This is in line with the provisions of the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS regulations 2001 which apply to international students.
